Clothes Closet Report for February 15, 2025

This month we had another cold and rainy day, but there were 21 shoppers who battled the weather. The rain was so heavy, we had to let everyone in just to wait their turn at shopping. That made it very crowded in the entryway, but it all turned out great and everyone was patient and stayed dry.

A total of 433 articles of clothing and a few housewares were distributed in just 2-hours. Since we have been receiving donations of gently used dishes, glasses, sheets, small appliances, etc., we decided to set them out on shelves in the hallway. Many of them left right away within the first hour, so our plan is to continue offering these types of items whenever they are donated to us. The generosity of others is what we depend on so that we can continue to be a blessing to the community! Also, the volunteers who give their time, talent and treasure every month are invaluable to our success.

Blessings from The Clothes Closet Team
